CARDINAL COMET

The Annual Staff of CARDINAL HIGH SCHOOL
presents
THE 1968
CARDINAL COMET

Editor Trudy Larson
Advisor Mr. Richard Toemmes

1968 School Board

W. W. Isenberger
1968 ended Mr. Isenberger's term of office at Cardinal as Superintendent of Schools after an eight year span of serving this community. He was really one in a million.

R. L. Madden
One year was all that this area was fortunate enough to have as principal, a man who brought discipline and respect to our schools. This man was none other than our high school principal, Mr.
Madden. We were really sad to see him go away.

Everett Garber

Everett Garber is not only our school janitor, but a swell friend to all the kids around. When ever there is a mess to clean up, or a favor to be done, he is always there to give a helping hand. Everett is the one who keeps our school in such good shape and never seems to complain about all the work it takes.

Velven Allen

Velven Allen is the man responsible for getting us all to school on time every morning whether we want to get there or not. He is also a great friend as it is he who is always willing to help us get our cars started on cold mornings and to help change our flat tires.

SPEECH CONTEST MEMBERS

1968 Concert

Band

Our concert band put on two concerts this year. One was their annual winter concert and the other being their annual spring concert. These students also participated in state and local instrumental contests.

Marching Band

This fine looking group of Cardinal Students made our 1968 marching band what it was. The best thing around. Our band not only performed at football games, but at parades all over Iowa. During the summer of 1967, they were the guest band at the Mason City Band Festival and have participated in the Drake Relays Parade for the past two years and even won third place for our class of bands.

Twirlers

Lee Henson, Barbara Essary, Norma Ostrander, Bec Wilkinson; Majorette, Patty Maynard, Trudy Larson, Sue Bedford, Connie Gobble.
